

FoneBackup Membership Auto-Renewal Service Rules

By subscribing, activating, and utilizing FoneBackup Membership Auto-Renewal Service (hereinafter referred to as "this Service"), you agree to these rules. FoneBackup Series Membership includes Continuous Annual Subscription Membership and Continuous Quarterly Subscription Membership (collectively known as FoneBackup Series Membership).

You understand and agree to:

1. If you activate this Service through the Android App and do not explicitly cancel the service within the subscription period, on the day each subscription period expires, the relevant entity will automatically deduct the service fee for the next subscription period from the balance of your recharge account, bound third-party payment account, bank card, communication account, etc. (collectively referred to as Accounts), which are bound when you activate this Service. This extends the validity of the membership for the corresponding subscription period.

If you activate this Service through Apple ID by Apple Inc. and do not explicitly cancel the service within the subscription period, within 24 hours before each subscription period expires Apple Inc. will automatically deduct the service fee for the next subscription period from the balance linked to your Apple ID (collectively referred to as the Accounts). This extends the validity of the membership for the corresponding subscription period.

You should pay attention to the status of the above account and available balance for deduction. Any risks or losses due to account issues or insufficient balance resulting in renewal failure will be your responsibility.

2. To facilitate your understanding of this Service, FoneBackup or Apple Inc. will provide notifications via methods such as [in-app messages, emails] by legal requirements before deducting the payment for the next subscription period, please pay attention to receiving it. Special attention needs to be paid, due to the nature of this Service, if you do not explicitly cancel this Service within the subscription period, FoneBackup will issue a deduction instruction to the relevant entity for the next subscription period based on your authorization. In principle, the fees deducted based on this instruction will not be refunded (if you activated this Service through Apple Inc., Apple Inc. will be responsible for issuing the instruction).
3. Subscription Period: 3 months, 1 year, etc. (subject to the settings on the subscription page), and members can choose by themselves.

4. You confirm and agree that FoneBackup has the right to adjust service prices. If FoneBackup intends to adjust the service price when you activate this Service, FoneBackup will notify you in advance through appropriate means (including but not limited to in-app announcements, emails). If you do not agree with the service price adjustment, you can cancel this Service according to these rules; If you do not cancel this Service, subsequent fees deducted by the relevant entity will be based on the adjusted service fee; If you cancel within 24 hours before the subscription period expires, the relevant entity may stop deducting the service fee for the next subscription period after deducting the adjusted service fee. After canceling this Service, if you activate it again, the automatically deducted service fee will be based on the service fee displayed on the page at that time.
